BIBLIOGRAPHY OF BRITISH AND IRISH HISTORY (BBIH)

The largest and most authoritative index of British and Irish history, covering the Roman period to the present day.

- Over 600,000 records of books, chapters and articles
- 12,000 records added annually
- Over 750 journals and series regularly checked for new content

“The Bibliography of British and Irish History is an essential resource for anyone interested in the history of Britain and Ireland, or the British World. (...) No student, lecturer or researcher should be without the wonderful BBIH.

Professor Sir David Cannadine, Dodge Professor of History, Princeton University, and President of the British Academy.

Global reach

Given the global reach of British and Irish history, the Bibliography provides extensive coverage of scholarly content relating to Britain, Ireland, the British empire and Commonwealth and the British world.

Resources by region 2019 (omitting Britain and Ireland)

An invaluable research tool for the study of Social History

A significant number (nearly a fourth) of bibliographic records in the BBIH cover publications relating to social history, including the following subfields:

Search for

Social history

1. The BBIH has numerous search fields. The database automatically counts the number of hits for each individual search term and the total number of hits.
2. The search results can be ranked according to author, title, or year of publication. The database supports several export formats. Set up email alerts to stay up to date with new research.
3. The bibliographic records contain a wealth of details about publications on the subject. They also provide links to online catalogues to help you find the publications in research libraries in Britain and Ireland, and provide links to the full text where available.

The screenshot shows the BBIH search interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'Introduction', 'Search', 'Coverage', 'Search History', 'My Email Alerts', 'Metrics', and 'Provide feedback'. Below this, there's a 'Simple search' and 'Advanced search' section. The 'Advanced search' section has several fields: 'Search anywhere', 'Bibliographical search' (with fields for Author, Title contains, Journal or Series, and Year of publication), and 'Subject search' (with fields for All index terms, Subject tree, Place name tree, Person as subject, and Period covered). The 'Subject tree' field is set to 'Social history' and shows 143918 hits. A red circle highlights the '143918' number. At the bottom right, a red circle highlights the 'Search' button and the text 'Total number of hits 143918'.
